

Are you getting the support you need during COVID-19?

Foundation Insurance Group has resources to help you cope during challenging times. Here are ways we are helping our clients plan for the unforeseen.

Home support.

Many are working remote now so annual premiums are reduced & dividend checks are being issued for auto policy holders.

Manage exposures.

Properly protect your assets, from your home to your lifetime earning potential, with life insurance.

Remove hurdles.

Even the medical exam is now waived for specific life insurance policies, making it easier than ever.

Expert advice.

We help you to build cash value for your whole life (school tuition, a wedding, or buying a house) while insuring your life.

Workplace guidance.

Many are now unemployed and suddenly without employer-owned insurance. We create solutions that weather job loss or transitions and retirement.

Smart strategies.

Bundling your auto, home and life insurance policy creates an additional cost savings now, when budgeting is critical.

Sound support.

Are you getting the support and the necessary insurance coverage needed during these uncertain times?

Call for guidance on your life, auto and home insurance.
